STATE NOTICES

OHIO RESIDENTS ONLY: The Ohio laws against discrimination requires that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio civil rights commission administers compliance with this law.

WISCONSIN RESIDENTS ONLY: For any provision of any marital property agreement, court decree order section 766.70, or statement under section 766.59 to adversely affect the rights of the Credit Union, the Credit Union must be provided with a copy of the Agreement, decree or statement or have actual knowledge of its terms before any credit is approved or account opened. Sign if you are NOT applying for this loan account with your spouse. This credit request, if approved, will be incurred in the interest of the marriage or family of the undersigned.

You promise that the information stated in this TotalLoan Simplified Loan Program Application is true and correct to the best of your knowledge. The Credit Union or its agent is authorized to investigate your credit worthiness, employment history, and to obtain a credit report and to answer questions about its credit history with you. The Credit Union may also obtain credit reports to update, increase, extend or renew credit with you. False or misleading statements in your application may cause any loan to be in default. You agree that this application shall be the Credit Union's property whether or not this application is approved. You will notify the Credit Union in writing immediately of any changes in your name, address or employment. You understand that it is a crime to willfully and deliberately provide incomplete or incorrect information to obtain credit. If you request, you will be provided the name and address of any credit bureau from which we received a credit report. If this application is used to issue a credit card, by signing below or by using or allowing the card to be used, you agree to all the terms and conditions of the credit card agreement provided to you with the credit card.

As security for any loan advance to you or on your behalf, under the TotalLoan Simplified Loan Agreement and Disclosure, you grant the Credit Union a Security Interest in all individual and joint share or other accounts you have with the Credit Union now and in the future. When you are in default you authorize the Credit Union to take that money and apply it to what you owe. Shares and deposits that would have an adverse tax consequence if pledged as security are not subject to this Security Interest.

To help the government fight the funding of Terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license and other identifying information.
